

Quentin Doyle | Special Counsel, Family Law

Dispute Resolution & Litigation Team
Brisbane

P (07) 3031 9716

E qdoyle@macdonnells.com.au

Quentin Doyle is an experienced family lawyer having practised exclusively in family law for 12 years. Quentin has sound knowledge and understanding of this sensitive area of law, bringing added value and depth in service to family law clients. Quentin holds a Masters of Law from Queensland University of Technology and is a Queensland Law Society Approved Mediator.

Prior to specialising in family law, Quentin was involved in various areas of general practice including personal injuries, commercial leasing and liquor licensing.

Areas of Practice

- Family Law

Experience

In family law, Quentin Doyle has experience in handling all matters including parenting and child-related issues, separation and divorce, spousal maintenance, binding financial agreements, matrimonial and de facto related property matters.

Qualifications

- Masters of Law, Queensland University of Technology (1998)
- Admitted to practise as a Solicitor of the High Court of Australia (1996)
- Queensland Law Society Approved Mediator (1996)
- Admitted to practise as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland (1986)
- Bachelor of Laws, Queensland University of Technology (1984)