

Paul Sterling | Partner, Dispute Resolution & Litigation Team

Townsville

P 07 4722 0286

E psterling@macdonnells.com.au

Paul Sterling practices almost exclusively in the area of Personal Injuries Litigation and Dispute Resolution and is an Accredited Specialist in Personal Injuries law through the Queensland Law Society.

Areas of Practice

- Personal Injuries Law & Litigation
- Workplace Health & Safety Law
- Mediation & Dispute Resolution

Experience

Since admission in 1988, Paul has worked predominantly in the area of Personal Injuries Law. Paul has extensive experience in all facets of Personal Injuries Law, having acted on behalf of both injured persons and insurers & self insurers.

Paul has had the conduct of proceedings at all stages, including the pre-court proceedings under the Workers' Compensation & Rehabilitation Act & The Personal Injuries Proceedings Act and in the subsequent litigated phase.

Paul currently acts on behalf of a number of Insurers and Self Insurers throughout Queensland and regularly advises those clients, industry & business groups and others on their rights and obligation under workplace health & safety and compensation legislation.

Paul has an intimate knowledge of relevant legislation including the Workers' Compensation & Rehabilitation Act, the Motor Vehicles Insurance Act, the Personal Injuries Proceedings Act, the Civil Liability Act and the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules.

Qualifications & Memberships

- Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland and member Queensland Law Society (admitted 16 December 1988)
- Member Queensland & North Queensland Medico-Legal Societies
- Member Australian Insurance Law Association (Queensland Branch)
- Accredited Specialist in Personal Injuries Law (1999) and current member of Personal Injuries Specialist Accreditation Advisory Committee.