

Heather Collins | Associate,
Dispute Resolution and Litigation
Townsville

P (07) 4722 0240

E hcollins@macdonnells.com.au

Heather Collins has extensive experience in all aspects of commercial dispute resolution, as well as trade practices, debt recovery and mergers and acquisitions to name a few.

Heather has an extensive background working as in-house counsel for a leading independent finance company and as a lawyer for legal firms across Australia.

Areas of Practice

- Commercial Litigation
- Debt Recovery
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Trade Practices Act advice and litigation
- Securitisation
- Negotiations
- Regulatory advice, including compliance
- Employment Law
- Anti-Money Laundering / Counter-Terrorism Financing Act advice
- Privacy Act advice
- Liquidations and insolvency
- Building and construction disputes

Experience

Heather's background includes providing advice as in-house counsel for a finance company, as well as practising as a lawyer for legal firms in Queensland, the Northern Territory and New South Wales.

With extensive and broad-ranging skills from commercial litigation to securitisation, Heather brings a depth of understanding and lateral thinking to clients' issues, as well as experience in negotiation and an acute appreciation of the challenges faced by in-house counsel.

Qualifications & Memberships

- Bachelor of Laws (Honours), University of Adelaide (2001)

- Bachelor of Arts (Labour Studies), University of Adelaide (2001)
- Admitted to Supreme Court of the Northern Territory (2002)
- Admitted to High Court of Australia (2003)
- Admitted to Supreme Court of New South Wales (2004)
- Admitted to practice with an unrestricted practising certificate (2008)
- Admitted to Supreme Court of Queensland (2009)