SUMMER CLERKSHIP PROGRAM

WITH ONE OF QUEENSLAND'S LARGEST LAW FIRMS

Opportunities exist for second and third year law students to undertake four weeks paid work experience in the MacDonnells Law Brisbane office in December 2010.

This is an excellent chance for you to kick-start your legal career by gaining valuable experience with one of Queensland's largest independent law firms. As part of the MacDonnells Law summer clerkship program you will:

- work closely with our experienced teams
- gain first hand knowledge of the MacDonnells Law Graduate Development Program
- be guided on the technical and interpersonal skills you will require to launch a successful career with MacDonnells Law.

APPLY NOW

To be considered for this excellent opportunity, please visit the Careers section of the MacDonnells Law website www.macdonnells.com.au and apply online by 27 August 2010. You will need to provide a covering letter, resume and a copy of your current academic results.
