

Anita Chand | Senior Associate, Family Law

Dispute Resolution and Litigation Team
Townsville

P 07 4722 0247

E achand@macdonnells.com.au

Anita Chand acts exclusively in the area of Family Law. Anita is one of only a few qualified Queensland Law Society Accredited Family Law Specialists in Townsville. She is also an Independent Children's Lawyer.

Areas of Practice

- Matrimonial Property Settlements, including Court Applications, Consent Orders and Binding Financial Agreements
- De Facto Property Settlements, including Court Applications, Cohabitation and Separation Agreements
- Child matters, including Orders in relation to who the child lives with, who the child spends time with, Location and Recovery Orders and Relocation
- Spousal Maintenance and Child Support
- Divorce
- Domestic Violence Matters

Experience

To ensure she is at the forefront of developments in this sensitive and ever-changing area of law, Anita regularly attends seminars and other presentations in relation to family law.

Anita has chaired Family Law Mediations through the Legal Aid office in Townsville.

In 1997, Anita became an Accredited Child Separate Representative and since that time has conducted numerous Court matters on behalf of children as the Independent Children's Lawyer.

Qualifications

- Registered Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner, 2007
- Queensland Law Society Accredited Family Law Specialist, 1999
- Accredited Child Separate Representative, 1997
- Admitted a Solicitor of the High Court of Queensland, 1994
- Admitted as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland, 1994
- Bachelor of Laws (with Honours), James Cook University, Townsville, 1992